NOTE VERBALE

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Federal Republic of Germany presents its compliments to the German Federal Foreign Office and has the honor to refer to the issuance of electronic Apostilles(e-Apostilles) in accordance with the Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalisation for Foreign Public Documents(hereinafter referred to as the Convention) and to communicate the following;

1. To further facilitate the circulation of public documents within the framework of the Convention, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China, as the competent authority for issuing the Apostille described in the Convention, will gradually issue e-Apostilles for public documents issued in China, with the process commencing on June 18, 2025 for Certificates of Origin issued by the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade.

2. An e-Apostille issued by China comprises three integral parts: the public document, the Apostille page containing the explanatory information of the effectiveness of the Apostille and verification instructions. The abovementioned three parts are consolidated into a single electronic document. E-Apostilles issued by China can be verified online at <http://consular.mfa.gov.cn/VERIFY/>. Enclosed herewith is a printed sample of an e-Apostille issued by China.

3. The introduction of e-Apostilles will not alter the categories and scope of public documents to which China applies the Convention. E-Apostilles(in PDF format) and Apostilles in paper form shall have equal legal effect. The scope of public documents issued in China eligible for e-Apostilles will be gradually expanded in accordance with the digitalization of official documentation in China.

China stands ready to maintain close communication with the Federal Republic of Germany under the framework of Convention regarding the issuance of Apostilles and better transborder circulation of public documents.

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Federal Republic of Germany would be most grateful if the German Federal Foreign Office could kindly inform the relevant institutions and citizens of the Federal Republic of Germany of the abovementioned information at an early date.

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Federal Republic of Germany avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Federal Republic of Germany the assurances of its highest consideration.
